Park Review: Doug Draper updated the committee on park projects including new fencing along the Riverwalk, possibly split rail construction, and ADA compliant ramps for the City Park connecting S. Park Drive to the gazebo bandstand area and picnic island. Mr. Draper also expressed a need for a new sign for the dog park. The beautification plan for Salisbury continues with the demolition of the downtown plaza. Lastly, Mr. Draper mentioned plans for ground lighting in War Memorial Park to highlight the renovated cannon.

Other Business: The committee discussed the idea for "March Madness" which would be an invitation to the public to help mulch various parks on three (3) Saturdays in March. Mike Pioruski offered the assistance of the Eastern Shore Running Club of which he is a member to assist in that endeavor. In addition, Mr. Pioruski advocated for including ideas for some type of park wayfinding in the city master plan.
